MANY COLLEGES TO MEET ON GRID TODAY

New York, Nov. 15.—The most pretentious schedule of football games of the season to date is mapped out for eastern college elevens tomorrow. This city will be the scene of two special contests for the benefit of the United War Work fund in which Princeton will meet the Cump Upton eleven at the Polo Grounds while across the river in Brooklyn, Rutgers and the Great Lakes naval training station teams will compete.

Among the all-collescontests the annual meeting of Pennsylvania and Pittsburgh at Pittsburgh is the outline.

station teams will compete.

Among the all-coiles contests the annual meeting of Pennsylvania and Pittsburgh at Pittsburgh is the outstanding feature. A closely contested match is expected with the Fittsburgh eleven a slight favorite in view of its undefeated record both this season and during the past three years.

Other games include Columbia and Wesleyan at New York: Navy and Ursinus at Annapolis; Lafayeete vs. Franklin and Marshall at Easton, Pa: Penn State and Lehigh at State College, Pa.: Fordham and Boston Coilege at Boston; Maine and Coiby at Waterville, Me: Andover and Exeter at Antre T."
